

Gallery happenings this January 2013 (Photos)

JANUARY 9, 2013 BY: JENNIFER EBERHART

Daniel Buren, 2012, Fiberoptics, 99.25 x 99.25 inches, at Bortolami Gallery Credit: Courtesy of the artist and Bortolami Gallery

Can't keep up with all the art exhibitions and gallery openings taking place across the city? Don't worry, Examiner has you covered! Here is where you'll find all the latest news on those free art shows, meetings with artists, art space renovations, and more. This month has many exciting gallery news items to report:

Bortolami Gallery: Daniel Buren's ELECTRICITY PAPER VINYL...: January 10 - February 16

View slideshow: January 2013 gallery exhibitions

This solo artist exhibition is the third for Buren at this gallery space. Bortolami Gallery will present Buren's works at their own gallery (520 West 20 Street) and also at Petzel Gallery (456 West 18 Street). Buren, a successful French minimalist best known for his use of stripes in contrasting colors, sizes, or directions, will exhibit installation works in both galleries, both situated and in-situ pieces. Oversized posters will be splashed in various places throughout the city to advertise Buren's exhibition. The opening reception for this show is January 10 from 6 to 8pm.