One of our favorite AB/MB sectors, PUBLIC, will be framed around the theme “Territorial” with 11 site-specific works in-and-around Collins Park (between 17th Street and 25th Street on Collins Avenue, South Beach). This year’s curator is Philipp Kaiser, and highlights include: a restaging of “Les Guirandes” by Daniel Buren that includes decorative flags and loudspeakers playing music; “Self-Reconstructed Elipsis” by Abraham Cruzvillegas comprised of wooden structures based on shelters from the artist’s hometown in Mexico; and a video work by Cyprien Gaillard called “KOE.” L.A. artist Jim Shaw and his band D’red D’warf will perform two parts of his opera, “The Rinse Cycle,” on Wednesday evening, December 6, in SoundScape Park (400 17th Street @ Washington Avenue).
