"STAINLESS"

April 26th - June 1st
SCULPTURAL INSTALLATION

"A nod to the once great utopian program of stainless steel. An ode to the alternately sanitized and seedy nether world of the public toilet, viewed as a static, out-of-date, unmoving movie. A fragmentary array of urinal bank partitions and (richly) upholstered movie theater seating" -T. BURR

Opening reception Saturday April 26th 6-8pm. Open to the public.
